Cara Clarke

E-MAIL cara.clarke8@gmail.com • PORTFOLIO theclarkespace.com • LINKEDIN linkedin.com/in/caraclarke •
GITHUB github.com/caraclarke

EDUCATION

Web Development Immersive	Technical Communication, BS	Software Engineering, MS
General Assembly, 2015	Arizona State University, 2017	Boston University, 2021

LICENSES

Certified Professional in Accessibility Core Competencies (CPACC)

IAAP - International Association of Accessibility Professionals

EXPERIENCE

Quick Base Inc.
February 2020 to Present, Senior Software Engineer
April 2018 to January 2020, Software Engineer II

Lead a team focused on supporting other UI teams in integrating accessibility tools, best practices, and rebranding to new design language

Collaborate with design and product management to create new workflows to include accessibility from the start of projects

Contribute accessibility and design updates to a library of reusable components

CVS Health/Aquent
December 2016 to March 2018, Front-End Web Developer

Work as part of front-end team to build out designs

Create features and components following accessibility best practices

Collaborate on design system, component library and icon library

Burke Software and Consulting
July 2016 to November 2016, Front-End Web Developer

Build out Passit project front end using Angular2 & TypeScript

Assist in Burke Software operations and software development lifecycle

Assist in contract work for clients

Codiscope
December 2015 to June 2016, Junior Interactive Developer

Front End web development for a team creating eLearning courses

Create eLearning interactions and assets using markdown, HTML5/CSS3 and JavaScript/jQuery

Work with design teams to create user interfaces for courseware

Assist with sprint planning, JIRA ticket creation and QA Testing